

MUSIC HALL.

Tuesday, 19th January.

KENNEDY'S

LAST NIGHT,
Prior to Departure for CALIFORNIA.

PROGRAMME.

PART I.

"AN HOUR WI' BURNS"

O' a' the airts the wind can blaw.
A Man's a Man for a' that,
Last May a Braw Wooer.
John Anderson my Jo.
Corn Riggs.
To Mary in Heaven.
Green Grow the Rashes, O.

PART II.

"Amang the Jacobites."

Mr. Kennedy will give a Humorous Reading from Sir Walter Scott's

"WAVERLEY"

and sing the following famous

JACOBITE SONGS:

The wee, wee German Lairdie.
Come ower the Stream, Charlie.
He's ower the Hills that I loe weel.
Allister McAllister.
Will ye no come back again.
Hame cam our Guldman at e'en.
Finale—Scotland Yet.

AULD LANG SYNE—GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

PIANOFORTE, - MISS KENNEDY.

ADMISSION 25 Cts. RESERVED SEATS 50 Cts.

Seats can be secured at Mr. R. Reid's Bookstore.

Doors open at 7. Commence at 8 o'clk.

Printed at the Free Press Job Office, Richmond Street, London.